

Gun Owner Supplement FAQ

Q: Is this considered a legal plan that requires a license? Will associates be required to have a license in a licensed state?

A: Associates will not be required to have any special training to sell the supplement. However, if the state requires a license to sell the legal plan, then the associate must be licensed to sell the Gun Owner Supplement.

Q: Is there a certification training required to sell this plan? If so, where can I find the training/information sign-up?

A: No certification is required to sell the Gun Owner Supplement.

Q: What is the commission plan?

A: Since it is a supplement, it will pay as all other supplements.

Q: Will this issue Performance Club points? If so, how many?

A: Yes, PC points will be issued based upon the dollar amount, just like the legal plan. A new Gun Owner Supplement would issue 13 PC points.

Q: Will this issue a counter?

A: No, it is a supplement. Supplements do not issue counters.

Q: Where can I find the materials for the Gun Owner Supplement?

A: LegalShieldOnDemand.com

Q: Will this be extending to Canada?

A: Not at this time.

Q: Is there a waiting period to use the benefit?

A: No, this provides immediate access.

Q: Will the premium benefit remain the same?

A: The Gun Owner Supplement is $12.95 per month when added to an eligible legal plan.

Q: Will this be available on Marketing Sites?

A: Yes.

Q: Can the Gun Owner Supplement contribute to level advancements?

A: No, this is a supplement and does not contribute to level advancements.

Q: Can this be linked to an associate to issue the 80 recruiting Performance Club points?

A: No, this is only a supplement and will not trigger points for an associate agreement.

Q: What are the age requirements for this plan?

A: You must be 18 to purchase the supplement.

Q: Will the current provider law firms handle this plan?

A: Yes, the Provider Law Firm in the member's state will provide the service.

Q: Will there be a special number to call for help?

A: No. The member can contact their provider attorney at the designated contact number.

Q: Will the benefits vary in each state?

A: No, benefits mirror across the country.

Q: Can a spouse be added?

A: Yes, if the spouse is listed on the legal plan.

Q: Can a dependent be added?

A: No, the supplement is only available for the named member and the named member's spouse.

Q: Will associates be able to set up a group with the Gun Owner Supplement?

A: Yes, but the group will need to have an eligible legal plan.

Q: Will this issue a counter if a member's SSN/SIN/TIN is already in the system with another plan?

A: No, supplements do not issue counters.

Q: Will members be able to add Trial Defense Service (TDS) or Home Business Supplement (HBS) to this plan?

A: Yes, this is a supplement, so the member may add additional supplements to the current legal plan.

Q: If this can be opened to a group, will there be a discount for an add-on?

A: No, this is a supplement and is treated like all other supplements.

Q: Do I have to shoot to be covered?

A: No. Our supplement provides benefits if you use a firearm as a weapon. You will receive protection when you display a firearm to use the firearm as a weapon to stop a threat, whether the firearm is discharged or not.

Q: What is an example of unlawful use of a weapon?

A: Taking a firearm into a prohibited place such as an airport, sporting event, bar, etc. is an example of unlawful use of a weapon. This is excluded from certain benefits of the supplement.

Q: Does the supplement cover shotguns/rifles or only handguns?

A: Our supplement covers the use of all legal firearms and other lawful weapons.

Q: If I call the 24/7 emergency assistance line, will I be speaking with a lawyer?

A: Yes. A lawyer will answer your covered emergency questions 24/7/365.

Q: Does the supplement defend me if I get caught carrying a firearm somewhere the law says it's forbidden?

A: No. Our supplement provides legal defense for your use of a firearm anywhere you are legally licensed to carry and be in possession of a firearm.

Q: Will I receive protection outside my state of residence?

A: Yes. You will receive protection for incidents where you display a firearm to use the firearm as a weapon to stop a threat, whether you discharge the firearm or not. If you are lawfully allowed to carry a firearm within another state, your benefits are available.

Q: If my case is a mistrial or the case must be retried, is that a benefit?

A: Yes. Our supplement provides you representation that includes both civil and criminal trials, as well as any retrials that may be necessary.

Q: Is there a limit to the number of hours for defense under this supplement?

A: Yes, there is a limit to the number of hours covered under the Gun Owner Supplement. However, our lawyers do not put a limit on the number of hours devoted to your defense. There is a limit to the hours included in your supplemental benefits (60 total hours). Once your 20 hours of covered pre-trial hours and 40 hours of covered trial hours are expended (per plan year), you are entitled to unlimited lawyer hours at a 25% discounted rate from the provider Gun Owner Supplement lawyer's standard hourly rate. You may be required to deposit a retainer to cover court costs, out-of-pocket expenses and any anticipated discounted lawyer fees. Your firearms program lawyer is there from the beginning until the very end, no matter how long it may take.

Q: Does the supplement cover criminal charges?

A: Yes. Our supplement protects the member and member's spouse in covered criminal charges related to the use of all legal firearms.

Q: Does the supplement provide bond services if I'm charged with a crime for the use of a firearm?

A: No. Our supplement does not cover bail bond fees or any other bond-related services.

Q: Does the supplement cover my dependents?

A: No, the supplement is for the named member and named member's spouse. Any dependents over the age of 18 who wish to have this supplement need to have their own membership and supplement.

Q: Can I cancel the supplement at any time and keep my membership?

A: Yes, as a member you have the right to cancel at any time.

Q: Does the supplement cover my spouse/partner?

A: Yes, your spouse/partner is covered if they are also a member on your membership.

Q: Does the supplement cover police officers while on duty?

A: No. We have a plan designed specifically for law officers. If this is the type of benefit you need, please contact your associate for more details.

Q: Can the Gun Owner Supplement be offered along with the legal plan as part of the voluntary employee benefits?

A: Yes, if the group authorizes a slot within their payroll deduction.

Q: Are there any legal plans that the Gun Owner Supplement cannot be added to?

A: Due to the membership characteristics of the plans, the Gun Owner Supplement CANNOT be added to any of the following:

- Small Biz 10, 50 or 100 or any Business Plans
- Certified Drivers Legal Plan (CDLP)
- Canadian Plans
- Primerica Plans
- Spanish Plans
- Open Panel and Partial Legal Plans

Q: Why can the Gun Owner Supplement not be added to the Home-Based Business Rider (HBBR) plans?

A: The Gun Owner Supplement is not eligible for attachment to plans that have been phased out and closed for years including:

- Old Home-Based Business Rider (HBBR) plans ($40.50)
- Old Legal Plan for the Self-Employed (LPSE) ($49.00)
- Old Arizona Probate Plans